AN *
ADVICE

TOUCHING
The Currancie in payment
of our English GOLD.
Corrected and amended.

AS ALSO,
A Table of the severall Wortks
of all peices vncurrant through want of weight.

Calculated according to the Number of Graines wanting.

AND
Published by Authority.

Disclaiming a Booke, intituled The free Ex- changer; being full of Errors, and the true value of diuers Pieces much mistaken.

LONDON.

Printed for Pen: Fisher, and are to bee sold at his Shep at the signe of the Talbot
without Aldersgate.

To the Reader.

Here ha-
 uing beene
 much doubt
 made (oc-
 casioning much difficul-
 tie, delay, and differences in payments of Money) whether the vn-eeuen pieces of Golde, viz.

A 3 XXII.

TO THE READER.

XXII. Shillings pices, &c. were Currant with such Allowances of Graines, as heretofore, before the last Proclamation. To cleere such scruples; and declare the severall worths of all vncurrant Coyne exceeding the Remedies. To the end. All may know, what such lightned Pieces will truly make: whereby they may bee much eased.

I

TO THE READER.

I haue Calculated the prises of the same, and what it will make at his Maiesties Exchanges; for the ease and direction of All men, that haue occasion to deliuer or receiue the same.

THE ADVICE.

WHEREAS, By
his late Majesties Proclamation made for suppressing of light Golde, a-mongest other thinges and reasons thereof (therein
more largely expressed) it is Contayned in these Wordes, viz.

AND

An Advice

AND therefore,
 Wee doe hereby straightly Charge
 and forbid, vpon
 paine of Contempt & incurring our High displeasure ; That no person or persons, from and after Midsomer next comming, in any Countrie of our Realme,
 doe presume to take, receiue,
 or deliuer in payment, any Piece of our Gold Coyne (and formerly by vs aduanced) at the rates aforesaid, being clipped, washed, or any other way vnlawfully diminisbed, or lacking of his iust weight ther-of, otherwise, then according to the Rates hereafter seuerally expressed. And with the Allowance formerly set downe

 in our former Proclamation.
 That is to say :

1. In euery piece Currant for Thirtie three-shillings, the Remedie shall not exceed,
 Foure Gaines and a halfe.
2. Twentie-two-shilling pieces,
 shall not exceed, Three Graines.
3. Sixteene-shillings Six-pence pieces, shall not exceed, Two Graines and a halfe.
4. Ele-

value. But if any such piece of Coyne lacking of his weight about the said Remedies, shall from and after Mid-sommer next comming, be offered in payment by any person or persons within this our Realme; Our will and pleasure then is, That for so many Graines more or lesse as the Piece shall bee lighter then the Remedies so as aforesaid allowed. Every person or persons, that so offereth the same in payment, shall also, at the same time pay and allow, after the rate of Two pence the Graine to him that receiueth it, for the Remedies respectiuely. (As if the piece of Twenty and two shillings, shall want more then three Graines aboue the Remedic allowed, or the piece of Eleuen-shillings, more then two Graines aboue the Remedic. And so of all the rest respectiuely.) Then our will and pleasure is, that in all payments beewixt partie and partie, the same shall not onely be refused without all redemption, but that euery person or persons, to whom such tender of payments bee made, shall brand the same, by striking a hole in euery of the said pieces so offered the owners thereof againe. Which said Lightned or Branded Pieces, Our pleasure is, shall bee brought or Carried to our Exchanges or Mint, there againe to bee molten and conuerted into Coyne.

B4 This

An Advice

This last Proclamation, expressly and by plaine termes, Extends vnto, and Comprehends only such Pieces, which at the time of the said Proclamation were Currant, for, and at the rates expressed in the same, viz. At XXX. shillings, XX. shillings, XV. shillings, X. shillings, V. shillings, and II. shillings, vj. pence. And therefore, for as much as all vn-euen pieces of I A C O B V S, halfe Quarters, and Eights, were at the time of the said last Proclamation Currant for other values, Viz.

viz. For XXXIII. shillings, XXII. shillings. XVI. shillings vj. pence, XI. shillings, V. shillings vj. pence, and II. shillings ix. pence, It is most cleere, That the same pieces are not at all comprehended, or altered by the said last proclamation, but doe and are now currant and payable vpon the same allowances and deductions for want of weight, as they were before the publishing of the same: And the rather, For that there were then pieces Currant for
