Gold, daring fellow, would often attack his own force, sometimes made prizes of ways fought, under the bloody flag.
 On the 17th of February last died in Berke-Virginia, Mr. Charles Roberts, at the age of 116 years.—He was a native of Oxford-land, but had resided in America nearly 80 years.—He retained all his faculties in perfect health to the end of his existence, and two years before he died he was able to attend church alone. During his long life he was a constant attendant on church services, and his death was not preceded by infirmity, it was sudden as he was eating his supper.
