Note.—THE Officers of the Mint do not keep any Official account, recording the Market Prices of Gold and Silver Bullion, or the Courses of Exchange; but it has been a custom of ancient standing to take in Lloyd's List, or other Papers of that description, which are deposited among the Books of the Office; and the foregoing Account has been carefully extracted from these Papers, as far as the List of them (which is not quite complete) from the year 1718, will allow.
