15.—An ACCOUNT of the BALANCES due to the Public upon the Ordinary and Extraordinary Accounts depending in the Offices of the late AUDITORS of the IMPREST, and transferred to the Commissioners for auditing the PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, wherein no Progress has been made since the same were so transferred; specifying the Nature of the last Proceeding had thereon, previous to such Transfer.

NAME.	SERVICE.	Time of Account.	BALANCE due to the Public.	Nature of the last proceeding previous to the Transfer.	OBSERVATION.
General Edward Cornwallis.	Late Governor and Commander in Chief of Nova Scotia.	From May 1749 to October 1752.	No Account Current.	Vouchers in part examined.	There being no attested Account Current delivered into this Office, and the Vouchers being in a very imperfect State; the Representative of the Accountant has been called upon for more complete Documents, but hitherto in vain. For which reason, the Examination of this Account has been postponed.
Colonel James Montefor.	Commanding Engineer in North America.	From 1st October 1755 to 27th May 1760.	No Account Current.	No Traces of any Proceedings on this Account can be found.	The Board have in vain endeavoured to obtain an Account Current; and it appearing to the Board, that the Accountant died intestate, without leaving any Effects, all further Proceedings respecting this Account have been suspended.
Jermyn Wright, Esquire.	For presents to Indians in South Carolina and Georgia.	For the Service of the Year 1749.	No Account Current.	No Traces of any Proceedings on this Account can be found in this Office.	The Board, upon their Establishment in 1785, found that this Account had been delivered into the Office of Lord Sondes in the Year 1756; but upon Search, neither the Account itself, nor any Vouchers belonging to it, could be found.
William Young, Esquire.	Governor of Tobago.	From 16th April 1775 to 1st May 1776.	The Account Current delivered is unattested, Debt £. 525. 3. 4 1/2.	No Traces of any Proceedings on this Account can be found.	Various Enquiries have been ineffectually made to discover the Representative of the Accountant.

Inspector General's Office,
Custom House, London,
May 23d, 1800.

Thomas Irving,
Inspector General of the Imports and Exports of Great Britain.

In the Year 1697, certain Rates of Value were affixed to the several Articles Imported into and Exported from the Kingdom; and consonant to these Estimates, the Ledgers of the Inspector General's Office are still kept, and the Public Accounts stated accordingly.

By the Act of the 38th of His Majesty, commonly called The Convoy Act, the Merchants Exporters are required to declare the real Value of British Manufactures exported, in order that the Amount of the Duty chargeable thereon may be ascertained; but the Exports to Ireland, certain Articles used in the Fisheries, and Cotton Manufactures, of all Descriptions, being exempted from Payment of this Duty, and consequently from the Declaration of the Exporters, as to the Value, the Inspector General therefore cannot make an Official Return to that Part of the Order of the House, which requires the Difference between the OFFICIAL Value and the DECLARED Value.

Assuming however, that Articles exported to Ireland, or used in the Fisheries, may be estimated at the same Rate of Value with Articles of a similar Nature exported to other Countries, and that Mr. Irving is correct in an Estimate which he has with great Pains formed of the true Value of Cotton Manufactures exported; he thinks himself justified in stating to Parliament, that THE VALUE OF BRITISH MANUFACTURES EXPORTED FROM GREAT BRITAIN TO ALL PARTS, AMOUNTED IN THE YEAR 1798 TO £. 33,148,682, AND IN THE YEAR 1799 TO £. 38,942,458.

No Account can as yet be prepared of the Value of the Imports from India and China, for the Year ending the 5th January last.

AN ACCOUNT of the Number of VESSELS with the Amount of their TONNAGE, which have been Annually Built and Registered in the several Ports of the BRITISH EMPIRE, between the 5th January 1789 and the 5th January 1800.

* Copies of the Certificates of Registry granted in the respective Ports in the PLANTATIONS not having been transmitted to this Office, from a considerable Number of those Ports, for the Year 1799, this Account is unavoidably defective to the Amount of the Vessels that may have been built and registered at such Ports within that Year.

J. Dalley,
Assist^t Register Gen^l of Shipping.

(3.)

AN ACCOUNT of the Number of VESSELS, and the Amount of their TONNAGE, and the Number of MEN and BOYS usually employed in navigating the same, which belonged to the several Ports of the BRITISH EMPIRE, on the 30th of September, in the Years 1789, 1790, 1791, 1792, 1793, 1794, 1795, 1796, 1797, 1798, and 1799, respectively.

1799 * - -	16,902	1,693,253	128,083

* The Returns from many of the Ports in the PLANTATIONS being unreceived, that Part of this Account which relates to the Year 1799, is, from that Cause, unavoidably defective; but I conceive that the Defect is not equal to the Amount of Shipping belonging to those Ports, because it always happens, that when the Returns from all the Ports in the British Empire are collected together and checked by each other, some Alterations become necessary in most of them, owing to the Circumstance of Vessels being registered de novo at Ports to which they did not formerly belong, without the Knowledge of the Officers at such former Ports; I therefore do not presume to lay this Account before the House as correct with respect to that Year.

J. Dalley,
Assist^t Register Gen^l of Shipping.
