

The Daily Post.

THURSDAY, August 3, 1721.

COMPUTATIONS, shewing the Disproportion of South-Sea Stock allowed to the Redeemable Proprietors, and the other new Proprietors, and the Gains thereby arising to the Old Proprietors, including the Midsummer Dividend of 10 l. per Cent. supposing Stock worth 140 l. per Cent.

Between the Redeemables and Irredeemables.

THE Irredeemables had an Interest for between 70 and 80 Years to come in their Annuities, 100 l. per Annum whereof cost not exceeding 1600 l. N.B. The first Subscribers of Irredeemables had Stock deliver'd on the 5th of October, on which Day it was sold at 270 l. per Cent.
The Redeemables 100 l. per Annum cost 2000 l. and is payable till redeemed by Payment of the Principal Sum of 2000 l.

	Stock.	At 140 l. per Cent.	Original costs	Gain
	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.
First Subscriber of Irredeemables hath for each 100 l. per Annum.	770 0 0	1078 0 0
In Bond or Money		575 0 0
	Total	1653 0 0	1600 0 0	53 0 0
Second Subscriber of Irredeemables hath for each 100 l. per Annum.	1153 6 8	1614 13 4	1600 0 0	14 13 4
Redeemable Proprietor for his 100 l. per Ann. or 2000 l. hath	733 6 8	1026 13 4	2000 0 0	973 6 8
Whereas an Old Proprietor upon his 2000 l. gains 1080 l. including also Midsummer Dividend of 10 l. per Cent.

Between the Money Subscribers and Redeemables.

The Four Money Subscribers contracted to pay for each 1000 l. Stock as follows: The 1st, 3000 l. the 2d, 4000 l. the 3d, 10,000 l. and the 4th, 10,000 l. whereof paid in as follows:

Ought to have paid.	Actually paid in, as per Callings Papers	For which in Stock at 300 l.	Worth at 140 l. per Cent.	Loss thereby	From the Principal Sum of
l.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.
1st Subscription 3,000	1,500 0 0	550 0 0	770 0 0	730 0 0	3,000 0 0
2d Subscription 4,000	800 0 0	293 6 8	410 13 4	389 6 8	4,000 0 0
3d Subscription 10,000	1,000 0 0	366 13 4	513 6 8	486 13 4	10,000 0 0
4th Subscription 10,000	2,000 0 0	733 6 8	1026 13 4	973 6 8	10,000 0 0
Redeemables paid in	10,000 0 0	3666 13 4	5133 6 8	4886 13 4	10,000 0 0
Whereas an old Proprietor on 10,000 l. Stock gains, at 140 l. per Cent. including also Midsummer Dividend, 5400 l.

Loss and Gain to the Company between the Redeemables and Borrowers, wherein Stock is valued at Par.

Money lent by the Company	1,125,025	Redeemables suppos'd to be subscrib'd	1,398,425
Stock pledg'd for it	2,357,885	Stock at 300 l. per Cent.	5,122,312
Loss to the Company thereby, and Gain to the Borrowers	8,901,140	Gain to the Company thereby, and Loss to the Redeemables	8,863,113

By this Computation it appears, that the Irredeemable Subscribers will receive, the one 53 l. the other 14 l. 13 s. 4 d. more than the Original Cost of their Annuities. And the Redeemable Proprietors will lose 573 l. 6 s. 8 d. upon each 2000 l. and so in Proportion.
By this it also appears, That the Four Money Subscribers have not only large Remittances made from their Contracts, but have Stock also allowed them in equal Proportion with the Redeemables, for their Money paid in, which they agreed to forfeit, in case of failure of their subsequent Payments. Whereas the Redeemable Proprietors have their whole Money kept in, and have no Remittance at all, and do thereby lose as much again as the first Money Subscribers, five Times as much as the second and fourth Money Subscribers, and nine Times as much as the third Money Subscribers.
By this it appears, That the Borrowers gain 8,901,140 l. and the Redeemables lose 8,863,113 l. reckoning Stock at Par. The Consequence of which is, the Redeemables very near pay the Debts of the Borrowers.
By this Estimate it also appears, That the Old Proprietors gain upon each 100 l. Stock 54 l. and the Redeemables upon the same Sum of 100 l. lose 48 l. 13 s. 4 d.
By this Estimate, all disinterested Persons may judge if the Redeemables are equally consider'd with the rest of the new Proprietors. And that the Redeemables are the Creditors of the Nation, and are not made either legally or equitably Part of the Company, and never consented nor agreed to any Terms (a Thing necessary to make a Contract valid) are no inconsiderable Circumstances.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Flanders.
Paris, August 9.

ON the 31st of last Month the King, who till then was in perfect Health, complain'd when he wak'd in the Morning of a small Pain in his Throat and Head: A Shivering came upon him some Hours afterwards, but did not however hinder him from going to Chapel to hear Mass. In the Afternoon the Pain in his Head grew somewhat violent, and obliged the King to take to his Bed: The Fever that to let him Blood about Four in the Afternoon: He receiv'd not from this Bleeding all the Benefit that was hoped for; and the Reasons that occasion'd that Operation still subsisting, it was thought necessary to prevent the Accidents that threaten'd the Head, by a Bleeding in the Foot, which was done on Friday the 1st Instant at Eleven a-Clock at Night. This was attended, almost in the very Moment, with the most happy Effects that could be expected, and put the King in a Condition to take a Purge the next Morning: His Majesty at first took some the Disproportion of South-Sea Stock allowed to the Redeemable Proprietors, and the other new Proprietors, and the Gains thereby arising, to the Old Proprietors, including the Midsummer Dividend of 10 l. per Cent. supposing Stock worth 140 l. per Cent.

Between the Redeemables and Irredeemables.

THE Irredeemables had an Interest for between 70 and 80 Years to come in their Annuities, 100 l. per Annum whereof cost not exceeding 1600 l. N. B. The first Subscribers of Irredeemables had Stock deliver'd on the 5th of October, on which Day it was sold at 270 l. per Cent. The Redeemables 100 l. per Annum cost 2000 l. and is payable till redeemed by Payment of the Principal Sum of 2000 l.

	Stock.	At 140 l. per Cent.	Original costs	Gain
	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.
First Subscriber of Irredeemables hath for each 100 l. per Annum.	770 0 0	1078 0 0
In Bond or Money		575 0 0
	Total	1653 0 0	1600 0 0	53 0 0
Second Subscriber of Irredeemables hath for each 100 l. per Annum.	1153 6 8	1614 13 4	1600 0 0	14 13 4
Redeemable Proprietor for his 100 l. per Ann. or 2000 l. hath	733 6 8	1026 13 4	2000 0 0	973 6 8
Whereas an Old Proprietor upon his 2000 l. gains 1080 l. including also Midsummer Dividend of 10 l. per Cent.

Between the Money Subscribers and Redeemables.

The Four Money Subscribers contracted to pay for each 1000 l. Stock as follows: The 1st, 3000 l. the 2d, 4000 l. the 3d, 10,000 l. and the 4th, 10,000 l. whereof paid in as follows:

Ought to have paid.	Actually paid in, as per Calling's Papers	For which in Stock at 300 l.	Worth at 140 l. per Cent.	Loss there by	From the Principal Sum of
l.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.	l. s. d.
1st Subscription 3,000	1,500 0 0	550 0 0	770 0 0	730 0 0	3,000 0 0
2d Subscription 4,000	800 0 0	293 6 8	410 13 4	389 6 8	4,000 0 0
3d Subscription 10,000	1,000 0 0	366 13 4	513 6 8	486 13 4	10,000 0 0
4th Subscription 10,000	2,000 0 0	733 6 8	1026 13 4	973 6 8	10,000 0 0
Redeemables paid in	10,000 0 0	3666 13 4	5133 6 8	4886 13 4	10,000 0 0

Whereas an old Proprietor on 10,000 l. Stock gains, at 140 l. per Cent. including also Midsummer Dividend, 5400 l.

Loss and Gain to the Company between the Redeemables and Borrowers, wherein Stock is valued at Par.

Money lent by the Company	11,259,025	Redeemables suppos'd to be subscrib'd	13,985,425
Stock pledg'd for it	2,357,885	Stock at 300 l. per Cent.	5,122,312
Loss to the Company thereby, and Gain to the Borrowers	8,901,140	Gain to the Company thereby, and Loss to the Redeemables	8,863,113

By this Computation it appears, that the Irredeemable Subscribers will receive, the one 53 l. the other 14 l. 13 s. 4 d. more than the Original Cost of their Annuities. And the Redeemable Proprietors will lose 573 l. 6 s. 8 d. upon each 2000 l. and so in Proportion.

By this it also appears, That the Four Money Subscribers have not only large Remittances made from their Contracts, but have Stock also allowed them in equal Proportion with the Redeemables, for their Money paid in, which they agreed to forfeit, in case of failure of their subsequent Payments. Whereas the Redeemable Proprietors have their whole Money kept in, and have no Remittance at all, and do thereby lose as much again as the first Money Subscribers, five Times as much as the second and fourth Money Subscribers, and nine Times as much as the third Money Subscribers.

By this it appears, That the Borrowers gain 8,901,140 l. and the Redeemables lose 8,863,113 l. reckoning Stock at Par. The Consequence of which is, the Redeemables very near pay the Debts of the Borrowers.

By this Estimate it also appears, That the Old Proprietors gain upon each 100 l. Stock 54 l. and the Redeemables upon the same Sum of 100 l. lose 48 l. 13 s. 4 d.

By this Estimate, all disinterested Persons may judge if the Redeemables are equally consider'd with the rest of the new Proprietors. And that the Redeemables are the Creditors of the Nation, and are not made either legally or equitably Part of the Company, and never consented nor agreed to any Terms (a Thing necessary to make a Contract valid) are no inconsiderable Circumstances.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Flanders.

Paris, August 9.
ON the 31st of last Month the King, who till then was in perfect Health, complain'd when he wak'd in the Morning of a small Pain in his Throat and Head: A Shivering came upon him some Hours afterwards, but did not however hinder him from going to Chapel to hear Mass. In the Afternoon the Pain in his Head grew somewhat violent, and obliged the King to take to his Bed: The Fever that follow'd the Shivering encreas'd about 8 in the Evening, and did not begin to abate till towards Two after Midnight: But this Abatement, which was not very sensible till Five in the Morning, lasted not long; for the Fever came upon him again about Ten a-Clock, and being pretty violent it was thought fit to let him Blood about Four in the Afternoon: He receiv'd not from this Bleeding all the Benefit that was hoped for; and the Reasons that occasion'd that Operation still subsisting, it was thought necessary to prevent the Accidents that threaten'd the Head, by a Bleeding in the Foot, which was done on Friday the 1st Instant at Eleven a-Clock at Night. This was attended, almost in the very Moment, with the most happy Effects that could be expected, and put the King in a Condition to take a Purge the next Morning: His Majesty at first took some Manna and some Time arter, two Grains of Emetick Tartar. This Remedy succeeded beyond all that could be expected or hoped for: Nothing appear'd of the Fit that was apprehended might come in the Afternoon, and the Fever continued to abate. The King found himself much better, and after ha-ving

... slept eight Hours together, he wak'd with his Head perfectly at Ease, and his Pulse without almost any Emotion. This Change for the Better, which was no less surprizing than fortunate, has continued ever since; and the King, who on the 4th took Physick a second Time, was that Day in the Afternoon in a Condition to admit the Superior Tribunals and the whole Court to pay him their Compliment on the Recovery of his Health. On the 5th, the Embassadors and other foreign Ministers had the Honour of paying their Respects to his Majesty, who rise on the 6th, and dress'd himself as usual, and is now restor'd to the Enjoyment of a perfect Health. The King during his Illness disclos'd a Resolution and Reason superior to his Age, and betray'd not the least Tokens of Fear or Impatience. The universal Conternation that was occasion'd by the King's Sickness, has been follow'd by a Joy, the most sincere, and the Demonstrations of it that continue daily are but weak Proofs of the publick Sentiments, and of the Prayers that are made for the Preservation of his Majesty.

On the 6th a Te Deum was sung to Musick in the Metropolitan Church, in Thanksgiving for the King's Recovery, with the usual Ceremonies, and Cardinal de Noailles, Archbishop of Paris, officiated Pontifically. The Duke of Orleans, the Duke of Bourbon, the Count de Charolois, the Prince of Conti, and the Count of Toulouze, were present at this Solemnity; as was also the Chancellor of France, accompany'd by a great Number of Counsellors of State and Masters of Request. The Clergy, the Parliament, the Chamber of Accounts, the Court of Aids, the Magistrates of the City, who were invited by the Sieur Des-Granges, Master of the Ceremonies, were all at this Te Deum, at which there was also an extraordinary Appearance of the Chief Persons of the Court. On the 4th, the Parliament caused a Te Deum to be sung to Musick on the same Occasion, in the Chapel of their Hall of Justice, at which the Holy Chapel assisted, and the Abbot de Champigni, their Treasurer, officiated Pontifically. The particular Tribunals of Judicature have likewise respectively caused Te Deum to be sung on Account of his Majesty's happy Recovery. M. Helvetius, the Son, who was the first that propos'd to bleed the King in the Foot, has obtained a Pension of 6000 Livres.

No Resolution has yet been taken in the Council of Regency touching the new Acquisitions, and that Affair is put off till after the Declarations from the respective Provinces have been sent in, examin'd, and register'd; about which 600 Clerks are now actually employ'd in the Offices of the Old Louvre.

The Turkish Embassador, who went hence on Sunday, lay that Night at La Riviere, a House belonging to the Count de Toulouze, who treated him with great Magnificence; and the next Morning gave him the Diversion of Stag-Hunting. On the 5th that Embassador lay at Fontainebleau, from whence he will continue his Journey to embark at Cette in Languedoc.

London, August 3.
Yesterday about Six in the Evening his Majesty went from St. James's to his Palace at Kensington, in order, as we are inform'd, to reside there during the present Session of Parliament.

On Tuesday last the Merits of the Petition of Miss Turbeville of Westminster, a young Lady of a good Fortune, was heard before the Lord Chancellor, against her Husband Mr. Gates, a Druggist, tho' commonly said to be a Blacksmith, who upon hearing the Matter was committed to the Fleet Prison for Subornation of Perjury, as were also her Maid and a Charewoman for Perjury; and one Wood, a Taylor, who falsly swore the Petitioner to be of Age in order to obtain a License for their Marriage, was likewise order'd to appear before his Lordship as Yesterday.

On Monday last Mr. Mift and Mr. Wilkinson were bail'd out of Newgate; the former was afterwards carry'd to the King's Bench Prison in Southwark.

This Morning the Corpse of Sir Jonathan Trelawny, Bart. late Bishop of Winchester, is to be carry'd with great Funeral Pomp and State, in order to be interr'd at his Lordship's Seat at Trelawny in Cornwall; the Procession to be made through Chelsea, Kensington, &c. The Trophies of Honour belonging to his Quality and Office to be carry'd before the Hearse, viz. Crown and Cushion, Mitre and Crozier, Great Banner and Banners.

On Sunday last the Lady Ingleby dy'd at Ken-

The Malefactors that are order'd for Transportation were Yesterday carry'd on board in order to be transported to Maryland, 15 from Newgate and a great Number from the Marshalsea, that were sent up thither from several Counties: About 130 more are to be sent away from Newgate on Saturday or Monday next.

Yesterday South-Sea Stock, Books shut. Bank 177 1/2. India 150. African 30 1/4. Royal Exchange Assurance 9 3/4. London Assurance 8 3/8. York Buildings 30 3/4. Lottery Annuities 100 1/4.

By Order of the Wardens of the Company of Goldsmiths, London, one James de Fontaine, of the Parish of St. Paul's Covent Garden, Goldsmith, was at the last Sessions held at High's-Hall for the County of Middlesex, indicted and fined for Selling Gold and Silver Wares of a coarser Alloy than the Standards of his Majesty's Treasury: These are therefore to give Notice thereof, and to warn all Persons who sell any Wares of Gold or Silver, that they take Care that the same be agreeable to the said Standards, and have the Hall-Mark thereon (if capable thereof,) there being several other Persons under Protection for Working and Selling such coarse Wares.

Whereas a Bill is exhibited in the High Court of Chancery against Sir William Pendarves, and others, by several of the Proprietors of Shares in the Mines now or late belonging to the said Sir William Pendarves: This is therefore to give Notice to all other Persons concern'd in the said Undertaking, (who are willing to partake of the Benefit of the said Suit) that they do apply, to Mr. John Hasell at the Cross-Keys on Ludgate-Hill, on or before the 15th Instant, otherwise they will be excluded from any Relief or Benefit that may arise thereby.

By His Majesty's Company of Comedians,
AT the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane, to Morrow being Friday, the 4th Day of August, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Fair Quaker of Deal; or, The Humours of the Navy. With Dancing by Miss Lavinia. And on Tuesday next will be perform'd a Play (not acted these Five and Twenty Years) call'd, Cleomenes; or, The Spartan Hero. Written by the late Mr. Dryden.

Lost on Tuesday last the 1st Instant at Night, between Mile-End and Bow, a Silver hilted Sword, a Pair of silk Stockings, and a Pair of Silver Shoe Buckles. If taken up, they are desired to bring them to Mr. Radley, a Tallow-Chandler, in Leaden-hall-Street, they shall receive Two Guinea Reward, and no Questions ask'd.

This Day is publish'd.
A short Treatise of the General Laws of Motion, and Centrifugal Forces; wherein, by the By, Mr. Gordon's Remarks on the Newtonian Philosophy are, in a few Colloquies and Scholies, clearly confuted. By George Birkbeck, M. A. Edinburgh. Printed for the Author, and are to be sold by G. Strahan at the Golden Ball over against the Royal Exchange, Cornhill. Where may be had; Fluxionum Methodus Inversa, five Quadratum Fluxionum Leges Generales. Et Specimen Rudimentum Methodi Fluxionum Inversa. A Georgio Cheynae, M. D. & R. S. S.

Just publish'd.
The System of Husbandry and Gardening; or, The Gentleman and Husbandman's Companion. Shewing, 1. Many excellent and curious Observations and new Experiments relating to Husbandry and Fruit-Trees. 2. Of Meadow, Pasture, and Arable Land, and the several Ways of their Improvement. 3. The Benefit of Raising, Planting, and Propagating of Woods. 4. Of Fruit Trees and Garden Tillage, and the most expeditious Way of Propagating Fruit-Trees. 5. A Treatise of the best and most proper Rules for making of Cyder, Raspberry, Currant and Apricot Wines, and Mum. 6. An Essay towards the Discovery of the Original of Fountains and Springs. With 5 Copper Plates curiously engrav'd: Part II. Printed for T. Warton at the Three-Daggers in Fleet-Street. Price 3 s. 6 d.

Just publish'd.
A Collection of several PIECES; written by Mr. John Locke; never before printed, or not extant in his Works; viz. 1. The fundamental Constitutions of Carolina. 2. A Letter from a Person of Quality to his Friends in the Country, giving an Account of the Debates of the House of Lords in April and May 1675, concerning an Act to prevent the Danegeld which may arise from Persons disabled to the Government. 3. Remarks on some of Mr. Norris's Books. 4. Elements of Natural Philosophy. 5. Some Thoughts concerning Reading and Study for a Gentleman. 6. Several Letters to Anthony Collins, Esq; the Lady Calverly, the Revd. Mr. Richard Kim, &c. 7. Rules for a Society, which met once a Week, for their Improvement in useful Knowledge, and the promoting of Truth and Christian Charity. Publish'd by Mr. Peter Delmaizeaux, Printed for R. Franklin at the Sun in Fleet-Street. Price 5 s.

Lately publish'd.
The LAST-DAY; a Poem, in blank Verse. In Twelve Books. By J. Bulkeley, Esq; late of Clare-Hall in Cambridge. Author of the Letters to the Reverend Dr. Clark on Liberty and Necessity, Printed for J. Peele at Lock's Head in Fleet-street Row. Where may be had, the 8th Edition corrected and improved. An Introduction to the History of the Principal Kingdoms and States of Europe. By Samuel Puffendorf, Counsellor of State to the late King of Sweden. Made English from the Original High Dutch. With an Appendix, containing an Introduction to the History of the Principal Sovereign States of Italy, particularly Venice, Modena, Mantua, Florence, and Savoy.

This Day is publish'd, curiously engraven on a Copper Plate.
A perpetual Tide-Table for Fosdike and Cross-Keys Washes in Lincolnshire, shewing from the Moon's Age the exact Time of full Sea, the beginning and ending of the Wash, or when Travellers may safely pass over. Inscr'd to William Skelley, M. D. C. M. L. and S. R. S. Price 6 d. Printed for J. Bateman at the Hat and Star, and J. Nicks at the Dolphin and Crown, both in St. Paul's Church-yard. Where may be had. The Antiquities of Cambridge. Price 2 s. 6 d. Methe Afternoon to admit the Superior Tribunals and the whole Court to pay him their Compliment on the Recovery of his Health. On the 5th, the Ambassadors and other foreign Ministers had the Honour of paying their Respects to his Majesty, who rise on the 6th, and dress'd himself as usual, and is now restor'd to the Enjoyment of a perfect Health. The King during his Illness disclos'd a Resolution and Reason superior to his Age, and betray'd not the least Tokens of Fear or Impatience. The universal Conternation that was occasion'd by the King's Sickness, has been follow'd by a Joy, the most sincere, and the Demonstrations of it that continue daily are but weak Proofs of the publick Sentiments, and of the Prayers that are made for the Preservation of his Majesty.

On the 6th a Te Deum was sung to Musick in the Metropolitan Church, in Thanksgiving for the King's Recovery, with the usual Ceremonies, and Cardinal de Noailles, Archbishop of Paris, officiated Pontifically. The Duke of Orleans, the Duke of Bourbon, the Count de Charolois, the Prince of Conti, and the Count of Toulouze, were present at this Solemnity; as was also the Chancellor of France, accompany'd by a great Number of Counsellors of State and Masters of Request. The Clergy, the Parliament, the Chamber of Accounts, the Court of Aids, the Magistrates of the City, who were invited by the Sieur Des-Granges, Master of the Ceremonies, were all at this Te Deum, at which there was also an extraordinary Appearance of the Chief Persons of the Court. On the 4th, the Parliament caused a Te Deum to be sung to Musick on the same Occasion, in the Chapel of their Hall of Justice, at which the Holy Chapel assisted, and the Abbot de Champigni, their Treasurer, officiated Pontifically. The particular Tribunals of Judicature have likewise respectively caused Te Deum to be sung on Account of his Majesty's happy Recovery. M. Helvetius, the Son, who was the first that propos'd to bleed the King in the Foot, has obtained a Pension of 6000 Livres.

No Resolution has yet been taken in the Council of Regency touching the new Acquisitions, and that Affair is put off till after the Declarations from the respective Provinces have been sent in, examin'd, and register'd; about which 250 Clerks are now actually employ'd in the Offices of the Old Louvre.

The Turkish Ambassador, who went hence on Sunday, lay that Night at La Riviere, a House belonging to the Count de Toulouze, who treated him with great Magnificence; and the next Morning gave him the Diversion of Stag-Hunting: On the 5th that Ambassador lay at Fontainebleau, from whence he will continue his Journey to embark at Cette in Languedoc.

London, August 3.
Yesterday about Six in the Evening his Majesty went from St. James's to his Palace at Kensington, in order, as we are inform'd, to reside there during the present Session of Parliament.

On Tuesday last the Merits of the Petition of Miss Turbeville of Westminster, a young Lady of a good Fortune, was heard before the Lord Chancellor, against her Husband Mr. Gates, a Druggster, tho' commonly said to be a Blacksmith, who upon hearing the Matter was committed to the Fleet Prison for Subornation of Perjury, as were also her Maid and a Charewoman for Perjury; and one Wood, a Taylor, who falsly swore the Petitioner to be of Age in order to obtain a License for their Marriage, was likewise order'd to appear before his Lordship as Yesterday.

On Monday last Mr. Miff and Mr. Wilkinfon were bail'd out of Newgate; the former was afterwards carry'd to the King's Bench Prison in Southwark.

This Morning the Corpse of Sir Jonathan Trelawny, Bart. late Bishop of Winchester, is to be carry'd with great Funeral Pomp and State, in order to be interr'd at his Lordship's Seat at Trelawny in Cornwall; the Procession to be made through Chelsea, Kensington, &c. The Trophies of Honour belonging to his Quality and Office to be carry'd before the Hearse, viz. Crown and Cushion, Mitre and Crozier, Great Banner and Banners.

On Sunday last the Lady Ingleby dy'd at Kensington.

They write from Dublin, that on the 22d past the Susanna of Chester arriv'd there, last from Holyhead, with some of the Domesticks and 16 Horses belonging to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, who is soon expected there to convene the Irish Parliament.

next. Yesterday: South
137 1 half. Indi
Exchange Assurance
5 8ths. York Build
ities 100 1 qr.

By Order of the Wardens of the Company of Goldsmiths, London, one James de Fountaine, of the Parish of St. Paul's Covent Garden, Goldsmith, was at the last Sessions held at His Majesty's Hall for the County of Middlesex, indicted and fined for Selling Gold and Silver Wares of a coarser Alloy than the Standards of his Majesty's Treasury: These are therefore to give Notice thereof, and to warn all Persons who sell any Wares of Gold or Silver, that they take Care that the same be agreeable to the said Standards, and have the Hall-Mark thereon (if capable thereof,) there being several other Persons under Protection for Working and Selling such coarse Wares.

Whereas a Bill is exhibited in the High Court of Chancery against Sir William Pendarves, and others, by several of the Proprietors of Shares in the Mines now or late belonging to the said Sir William Pendarves: This is therefore to give Notice to all other Persons concern'd in the said Undertaking, (who are willing to partake of the Benefit of the said Suit) that they do apply to Mr. John Hufell at the Cross-Keys on Ludgate-Hill, on or before the 15th Instant, otherwise they will be excluded from any Relief or Benefit that may arise thereby.

By His Majesty's Company of Comedians,
AT the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane,
To Morrow being Friday, the 4th Day of August, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Fair Quaker of Deal; or, The Humours of the Navy. With Dancing by Miss Linar. And on Tuesday next will be revived a Play (not acted these Five and Twenty Years) call'd, Cleomenes; or, The Spartan Hero. Written by the late Mr. Dryden.

Lost on Tuesday last the 1st Instant at Night, between Mile-End and Bow, a Silver hilted Sword, a Pair of Silk Stockings, and a Pair of Silver Shoe Buckles. If taken up, they are desired to bring them to Mr. Radley, a Tailor-Chordier, in Leaden-hall-Street, they shall receive Two Guineas Reward, and no Questions ask'd.

This Day is publish'd.
A Short Treatise of the General Laws of Motion; and Centripetal Forces: wherein, by the By, Mr. Gordon's Remarks on the Newtonian Philosophy are, in a few Corollaries and Scholies, clearly confuted. By George Pirrie, M. A. Edinburgh. Printed for the Author, and are to be sold by G. Strahan at the Golden Ball over against the Royal Exchange, Cornhill. Where may be had, Fluxionum Methodus Inversa, five Quæstiones Fluxionum Leges Generales, Et Specimen Ratiocinationis Methodi Fluxionum Inversa. A Georgio Cheyne, M. D. & R. S. S.

Just publish'd.
The System of Husbandry and Gardening; or, The Gentleman and Husbandman's Companion. Shewing, 1. Many excellent and curious Observations and new Experiments relating to Husbandry and Fruit-Trees. 2. Of Meadow, Pasture, and Arable Land, and the several Ways of their Improvement. 3. The Benefit of Raising, Planting, and Propagating of Woods. 4. Of Fruit Trees, and Garden Tillage; and the best expeditious Way of Propagating Fruit-Trees. 5. A Treatise of the best and most proper Rules for making of Cider, Raspberry, Currant and Apricot Wines, and Mum. 6. An Essay towards the Discovery of the Original of Fountains and Springs. With 5 Copper Plates curiously engrav'd: Part II. Printed for T. Wotton at the Three Daggers in Fleet-Street. Price 3 s. 6 d.

Just publish'd.
A Collection of several PIECES; written by Mr. John Locke, never before printed, or not extant in his Works; viz. 1. The fundamental Constitutions of Carolina. 2. A Letter from a Person of Quality to his Friend in the Country, giving an Account of the Debates of the House of Lords in April and May 1675, concerning an Act to prevent the Danegeld which may arise from Persons disaffected to the Government. 3. Remarks on some of Mr. Norris's Books. 4. Elements of Natural Philosophy. 5. Some Thoughts concerning Reading and Study for a Gentleman. 6. Several Letters to Anthony Collins, Esq; the Lady Calverly, the Revd. Mr. Richard King, &c. 7. Rules for a Society, which met once a Week, for their Improvement in useful Knowledge, and the promoting of Truth and Christian Charity. Publish'd by Mr. Peter Desmaizeaux, Printed for R. Franklin at the Sun in Fleet-Street. Price 5 s.

Lately publish'd.
The EAST-DAY; a Poem, in blank Verse. In Twelve Books. By J. Bulkeley, Esq; late of Clare-Hall in Cambridge, Author of the Letters to the Reverend Dr. Clark on Liberty and Necessity. Printed for J. Peele at Lock's Head in Paternoster Row, Where may be had, the 8th Edition corrected and improved of, An Introduction to the History of the Principal Kingdoms and States of Europe. By Samuel Puffendorf, Counsellor of State to the late King of Sweden. Made English from the Original High Dutch. With an Appendix, containing an Introduction to the History of the Principal Sovereign States of Italy, particularly Venice, Modena, Mantua, Florence, and Savoy.

This Day is publish'd, curiously engraven on a Copper Plate.
A perpetual Tide-Table for Fossdike and Grosi-Keys Wishes in Lincolnshire, shewing from the Moon's Age the exact Time of full Sea, the beginning and ending of the Wash, or when Travellers may safely pass over. Inscr'd to William Stukely, M. D. C. M. L. and S. R. S. Price 6 d. Printed for J. Bateman at the Hat and Star, and J. Nicks at the Dolphin and Crown, both in St. Paul's Church-yard. Where may be had, The Antiquities of Cambridge. Price 3 s. 6 d. Medicina Flagellata; or, The Doctor scarr'd. Price 3 s. Original Poems on several Occasions by Mr. Heywood. Price 6 d. The Plague of Maffellie, a Poem, by a Person of Quality. Price 6 d. A Poem on the Death of the late Earl Stanhope, by Mr. Pitt, Fellow of New College, Oxon. Price 6 d. &c.