

0241

36-29

11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 2

T R A C T S
 PUBLISHED AND DISTRIBUTED GRATIS
 BY
 THE SOCIETY FOR CONSTITUTIONAL INFORMATION,
 WITH A DESIGN
 TO CONVEY TO THE MINDS
 OF
 THE PEOPLE
 A KNOWLEDGE OF THEIR RIGHTS; PRINCIPALLY THOSE OF REPRESENTATION.
 VOLUME THE SECOND.

---

L O N D O N:
 PRINTED BY .H GOLDNEY, NO. 15, PATER-NOSTER ROW,
 M DCC LXXXVI.

C O N T E N T S.

P A R T I.

	Page
E XTRACT from the bishop of Landaff's Letter to his Grace the archbishop of Canter- bury, upon the influence of the crown	1
Three letters concerning a reform in parliament	4
Letter from Mr. Lofft, recommending the Dialogue on Government	14
Letter from Mr. Lofft, containing an extract from Major Cartwright's Legislative rights of the commonalty vindicated , in which the necessity of universal representation is insist- ed upon	16
Letter from Mr. Lofft, containing some extracts from Grey's Debates , on the necessity of short parliaments	18
Two addressees to the merchants, manufacturers, and other inhabitants of Leeds, Wakefield, &amp;c. &amp;c. and other unrepresented towns, shewing how much it is the interest of such towns to obtain a parliamentary reform	21
Letter from the dean of St. Asaph relative to the prosecution commenced against him for republishing the Dialogue on government	33
Two addressees to the volunteers of the province of Ulster—the first from the delegates of the Ulster regiment—the second from the de- legates of 45 corps of the province of Ul- ster; strongly urging the necessity of a par- liamentary reform in Ireland	35
Resolution of thanks from the grand national convention of Ireland, to those noblemen and gentlemen who offered to renounce their interests in boroughs under their influence	39

C O N T E N T S.

	Page
Proceedings in the cause of the king against the dean of St. Asaph , on the prosecution of William Jones, for a libel, at the great session held at Wrexham, for the county of Denbigh, on Sept. 1, 1783	41
The Duke of Richmond's letter to the committee of correspondence at Lisburn in Ireland, stating his grace's sentiments and advice as to the best mode of destroying borough influence	79
The Duke of Richmond's bill for a more equal representation	91
Thanks of the Society for constitutional information to the Duke of Richmond, for his letter to the committee of correspondence at Lisburn	111
Letter from the committee of citizens of Edinburgh, to the Society for Constitutional Information, requesting a correspondence with them, together with the answer	111
Extracts from An historical essay on the English constitution , in favour of short parliaments	113
Second letter from the Edinburgh committee, stating their determination to circulate tracts in imitation of the Society for constitutional information, with the answer	115
Quaker's petition to the house of commons, for an abolition of the slave-trade	118

P A R T II.

THE whole of the proceedings at Shrewsbury summer assizes, 1784, in the cause of the king, on the prosecution of William Jones, against the dean of St. Asaph, for a libel

P A R T

C O N T E N T S.

P A R T III.

	Page
A Fragment on the constitutional power, and duty of juries upon trials for libels	1
A letter on the same subject	12
A third address from the Society for constitutional information to the people of Great Britain and Ireland	17
Extract from Dr. D'Avenant's Essay upon the probable means of making a people gainers in the balance of trade , shewing the dangerous consequences which arise from the professed friends of the people deserting their ancient principles	24
The address of Joshua Grigby, Esq. to the county of Suffolk, upon the general election in 1784	27
Extract from Mr. Hume's essays on the liberty of the press	28
Extract from a letter to the Secretary of the Society for constitutional information, recommending a repeal of the septennial act	30
Extracts from Mr. Day's Fragment of an original letter on the slavery of the negroes , with a resolution of the Society for constitutional information prefixed	34
Extract from Mr. Hartley's Address to the mayor and corporation, &amp;c. &amp;c. of Kingston upon Hull , recommending a parliamentary reform	38
Extract from the Dedication of Junius to the English nation , on the liberty of the press	40
A letter on negro slavery	43
Mr. Wyvill's Summary explanation of Mr. Pitt's intended bill for amending the representation of the people in parliament , with a prefatory advertisement from the Society for constitutional information	47
Letter from Dr. Jebb, with an extract from	An

C O N T E N T S.

	Page
An historical account of the rights of the parliament of Scotland, shewing the ancient laws of that kingdom for training up the people in the use of arms	59
Extract from the Count de Mirabeau's Considerations on the order of Cincinnatus , relative to the decision of the court in the case of the dean of St. Asaph	62
Letter from Dr. Jebb, with an extract from Sir John Fortescue On the difference between an absolute and limited monarchy , shewing the benefits arising to a kingdom from the riches of the common people	64
Extracts from Lord Moleworth's preface to Hotoman's Franco-Gallia , containing the character of a true whig	68
Extract from the The old Whig , shewing the danger of relying on men of abilities, without regarding their integrity	79
A letter on the benefits resulting from the liberty of the press	81
The sentence against Galileo for maintaining the doctrine of the earth's motion	88
Galileo's abjuration	93
Decree xxxviii. of the sacred congregation of Index prohibiting Galileo's work	95
Extracts from Mr. Prynne's Seasonable, legal, and historical vindication, and chronological collection of the good, old, fundamental liberties, franchises, laws, of all English freemen ; shewing that this kingdom has certain fundamental rights and liberties, and enumerating the most considerable of them	96
Extract from Andrew Fletcher of Saltoun's Discourse of government with relation to militias ; shewing the excellency of a good militia, and the necessity of training up the freemen of a nation to the use of arms	101

END of the TABLE.