THE Report of the TRUSTEES
OF THE
The Forfeited ESTATES of IRELAND, &c.

May it Please Your Honours,
IN Obedience to An Act of Parliament, Made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, (of Glorious Memory) Entitled, An Act for the Appointing Commissioners to Take, Examine, and Determine the Debts Due to the Army, Navy, and for Transport-Service; and also an Account of the Prizes taken during the late War. We the TRUSTEES for Sale of the Forfeited Estates and Interests in Ireland, Vested in Us, do Humbly lay before Your Honours this Account of Our Proceedings.

We have heard and Determined all the Claims, in Number Three Thousand One Hundred and Forty, which do contain above Four Thousand distinct and separate Titles; and Enroll'd the Decrees, and executed all the Parts of the Great Trust Reposed in Us, with as little Expence and delay as the Nature of a Work consisting of such Variety could Admit.

We have further deliver'd over to the Commissioners of the Revenue, the following particulars to be Accounted for to Her Majesty:

Forfeited Mortgages, Judgments, Statutes, Bonds and other Debts, some part whereof may be Desperate, Amounting to the Sum of	55	797	16	9
Money in the Receivers Hands, over and above the before-mentioned sum of 6019l. 1s. 7d. half peny,	60	10	7	3
The Sum of	61	808	3	9

A more particular Account of All, which is contained in a Book Delivered in with this Report.

Besides the Particulars aforesaid, There are several Estates which may hereafter appear to be Forfeited: But for want of sufficient evidence in our Time, to make out a Good Title in the Publick, VVe

We did not think Fit to Expose Them to Sale; And therefore Return'd Them to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Revenue.

There was also a Fine of Ten Thousand Pounds Imposed on Job Parker for a False Claim, which is Certifyed to the Barons of Her Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, and directions given for Prosecution According to the Act of Parliament.

We have farther Delivered over all the Records, Books, Papers and Writings relating to the Forfeited Estates, except such as were necessary to perfect Our Accompts, and except the Books of Survey, which (not being Compleat at our leaving Ireland) We thought it for the publick service, to Continue in the Hands of the Surveyor for that purpose, and believe by this time they are Finished.

And here We Humbly crave leave to lay before Your Honours, That (besides all the above Particulars) the Reliefs given by the Act of Resumption, the Act for the Relief of the Protestant Purchasers, and the several private Acts of Parliament; together with the several Estates, Interests, and Sums of Money Claimed, and Allowed by Us, according to the best Computation we are able to make, Amount in Value to at least Eleven Hundred Thousand Pounds.

We are sensible Our sincere and hearty Endeavours to serve the Publick, have created Us many Enemies in that Kingdom; who to serve Private Ends have cast Reproach and Dishonour upon Us and Our Proceedings: But We hope their Many and Causeless Aspersions will make no Impression to Our Disadvantage, 'till they charge Us with some Mis-behaviour in particular, When, We doubt not, but so to acquit Our selves, and Vindicate Our Proceedings, as to Obtain Your Honours Approbation;

All which We most Humbly Submit to Your Honours.
